

Free Podcasts for Young Adults

Ask the geographer Podcasts

Keep your GCSE and A Level case studies up to date with the latest geographical research. Listen to the full collection here.

<https://www.rgs.org/schools/teaching-resources/ask-the-expert-podcasts/>

Revisionist History

New takes on a wide range of historical events, people and ideas along with unusual and undiscovered stories. Episodes cover everything from civil rights to our relationship with technology. References and extras can also be found on the website.

<http://revisionisthistory.com/>

Goodnight Stories for Rebel Girls

Following on from the bestselling book, this podcast showcases stories about extraordinary and brilliant women from the worlds of politics, sports, arts and so much more. The stories are narrated in short and snappy 20-minute episodes.

<https://www.rebelgirls.com/pages/podcast>

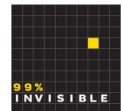

99% Invisible

This design and architecture-focused podcast has a focus on unpacking generally overlooked or misunderstood activities or ideas that contribute to the way the world works. Recent topics include the invention of the address and in the influence of Instagram on design.

The website also includes in-depth descriptions and transcripts.

<https://99percentinvisible.org/>

Radiolab

This podcast features a curated list of child-friendly episodes from a long-running American podcast and radio series, exploring everything from whether animals laugh and our obsession with space to the speed of thought and how rainbows are formed.

<https://www.wnycstudios.org/podcasts/radiolab-kids>

